Prayer Points

Heike Anderson

As many will have heard already, news has reached the parish of the passing into glory of Heike Anderson, a friend of St. Paul's & known to the HHFP & CC & Sunday night healing services. Our condolences and prayers have been communicated to her family in WA where Heike has been living for a couple of years.

A contribution for flowers can be made online to BSB: 702-389 Account 05209503.

Keeping in touch

I would encourage you to:

1. Arrange an online meeting for your home / midweek groups...
2. make one phone call a day to someone else, even if it's just 10 minutes.
3. IF you are walking past someone's home put a card or note in their letterbox.

Also, if you live alone under the current rules you can choose to be in a bubble with one other local household. This means you can sometimes meet face to face for transport or exercise, etc without breaking the rules.

*If you have any concerns, comments or suggestions during the lockdown

Helping Hand Food Pantry

As you can imagine the news of the lockdown created a flurry of activity while we sorted out if Pantry was considered an essential service this time round (answer yes) and then how to make it happen in the safest possible way for everyone. There are no CRN boxes this time round.

With thanks to God, and everyone involved we opened in our new format last Thursday. On Wednesday we received a huge delivery from Oz Harvest - which we wondered was not too much. On Thursday twenty-seven members - some shopping for multiple households came through the Pantry. On Friday we opened up twice to provide emergency relief to two more households. Guess what? God knew just how much we needed. There was enough for all, but only a little bit of bread left at the end of Friday.

The need in the community is great. Pray with us that those who need our support will find their way to us. Pray for the volunteers who work so hard. Most of all Praise God for His great love for all his creation and for His provision for each and every one of us.

Blessings Robyn and the Pantry Team

Finally, something for you to ponder

*What matters most is how you see yourself!
Never let some else
determine your self-image!*

*What's a little discomfort...
when you are confident that your needs will be provided for!*

Trust GOD!
